

AUTO MANUFACTURERS MOBILITY PROGRAMS

Chrysler Mobility Program

If you buy or lease a new Chrysler Corporation vehicle, Chrysler Corporation will provide cash reimbursement to help cover the cost of installing adaptive driver or passenger equipment on a vehicle. Conversions to full-size Van Ramps and Ram Wagons and minivans may be reimbursed up to $1000 while all other Chrysler Corporation cars and trucks qualify for a maximum of $750. For more information, contact the Chrysler Auto Mobility Program toll free at 800-255-9877 (TTY Users: 800-922-3826). In Canada call 800-265-6908 or 313-916-9448.

<http://www.automobility.daimlerchrysler.com/>

Ford Mobility Motoring Program

The Ford Mobility Motoring Program provides up to $1,000 cash assistance toward the exact cost of adding adaptive equipment to a new 1999 or 2000 Ford, Lincoln or Mercury car, van, or light truck, and up to $200 on alerting devices. For more information, contact the Ford Mobility Motoring Program toll free at 800-952-2248 (TTY Users: 800-833-0312). In Canada call 800-565-8985.

<http://www.mobilitymotoringprogram.com/mainpage.mob>

GM Mobility Program

General Motors offers up to $1,000 toward the cost of eligible mobility adaptive equipment installed or reinstalled on purchased or leased* new GM cars, vans, or light-duty trucks. This may be applied to any aftermarket equipment needed for the driver or passenger such as hand controls, wheelchair or scooter lifting devices, steering knobs, and additional hand grips. For more information, contact the GM Mobility Assistance Center, toll free at 800-323-9935 (TTY Users: 800-833-9935). In Canada call 800-263-3777 or 905-644-6624.

http://www.gm.com/automotive/vehicle_shopping/gm_mobility/fa_gmmrp.html

Saturn Mobility Program

Saturn will reimburse you for the cost of eligible aftermarket driver or passenger mobility equipment, including installation, for the actual amount up to $1,000. If you require aftermarket driver or passenger alerting devices, Saturn will reimburse up to $200, including installation. If you require both mobility aids and alerting devices, Saturn will reimburse a total of $1,000 ($200 for alerting devices and the remaining portion of up to $800 for mobility aids). For more information, contact the Saturn Mobility Program, toll free at 800-553-6000 (TTY Users: 800-833-6000). In Canada call 800-553-6000.

http://saturn.thenetlab.net/company/mobility_program.jhtml

Toyota Mobility Program

Toyota and Lexus will provide cash reimbursement of up to $1,000 to each eligible, original retail customer, for the cost of purchasing and installing qualifying adaptive driving or passenger equipment for transporting persons with physical disabilities. The offer applies to all purchased or leased new 2001, 2002 or 2003 Toyota or Lexus vehicles and vehicles must be adapted within 12 months of delivery date. Eligibility requirements for assistance can be found at www.toyota.com/mobility, www.lexus.com/mobility and at any authorized Toyota or Lexus dealer.

<http://www.toyota.com/mobility/>

Volkswagen Mobility Access Program

Volkswagen will refund $1000 on the purchase or lease of a new Volkswagen vehicle if vehicle access or ramp equipment is installed. For more information, contact Volkswagen of America, Inc., Mobility Access Program, PO Box 214378, Auburn Hills, MI, 48321-9975 or toll free at 800-DRIVE VW.

Honda Mobility Program

The Honda Customer Mobility Assistance Program is proud to support the mobility needs of drivers and passengers with physical disabilities. Honda will provide a reimbursement of up to $1,000 to each eligible, original retail customer for expenses incurred to purchase and install qualifying adaptive equipment on any eligible purchased or leased Honda vehicle.

http://automobiles.honda.com/info/mobility_program.asp?function=faq

Hyundai Mobility Program

Provides up to $1000 reimbursement towards adaptive equipment and modifications. Customers will be reimbursed up to $1,000 for new adaptive equipment installed in any new Hyundai vehicle leased or purchased through an authorized dealership. Call Hyundai Motor America at 1-800-633-5151

http://www.hyundaiusa.com/financing/specialoffers/mobility_program.aspx

Subaru Mobil-it-Ease Program

The program provides qualifying owners with up to $500 to help offset the costs required to outfit Subaru vehicles with equipment that enables them to drive. Please contact your Subaru dealer for program qualifications, details and restrictions, or call (800) SUBARU-3 [(800) 782-2783].

http://www.subaru.com/home_noflash.jsp

Volvo Mobility Assistance Program

Phone: (800) 803-5222 / (800) 833-0312 (TTY users)

<http://www.volvocars.us/pagenotfound.htm?path=http://www.volvocars.us:80/VolvoOwnership/VolvoMobility/>